

Matt Curry

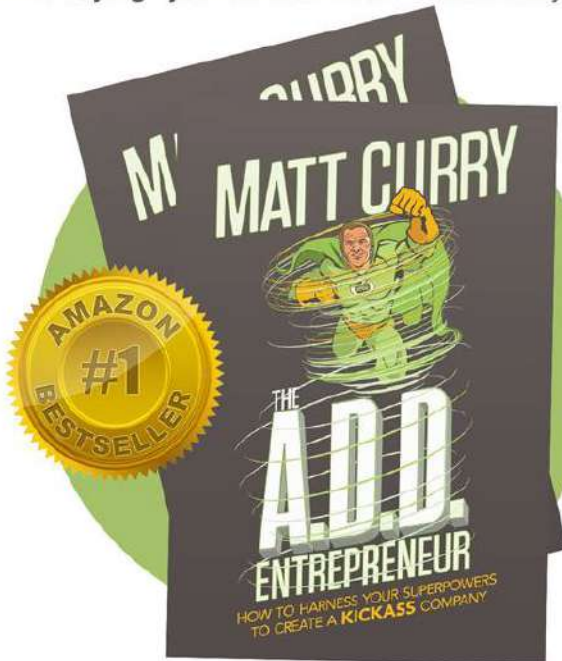

Entrepreneur, Best Selling Author, Keynote Speaker, Coach

Matt Curry is a highly successful entrepreneur and automotive industry expert with more than 30 years experience. From his first job changing tires at age 15 to his current accomplishments as a best-selling author and business coach, Matt is a visionary recognized by the business community for his valuable contributions to the field and whose achievements include community and public service. He has impact in his hometown and across the globe.

Matt's Keynote Presentation and Business Consulting is based on how to increase sales and profits using his proven system that allowed him to exit from Curry's Auto Service by selling his company for over $16 million to a publicly-traded, $1 billion corporation in 2013.

Matt has A.D.D. and instead of seeing it as a "flaw," he turned it into his superpower. Throughout his career, he used his A.D.D. to create many successful businesses. Known as the A.D.D. Entrepreneur, Matt Curry advises entrepreneurs and CEO's on how to accelerate the growth of their business. His talks are value packed and inspiring with actionable tips for audience members to take away.

“Regardless of the kind of business you operate, your customers want only one thing from you: they want you to make their lives better and easier. Before your clients will say “yes” to you, you must establish a culture of saying “yes” to them first!” – Matt Curry
